POSITION OVERVIEW

This is an executive role with responsibility for the administration and management of a consolidated emergency communication center. General duties include planning, organizing, directing, and overall supervision of the consolidated dispatch center that services Sumner County, Tennessee and five municipalities within Sumner County. Responsibilities include law enforcement, fire, emergency medical and emergency management communications services. This position is managed by the Sumner County Mayor and answerable to the Executive Committee of the Emergency Communications Center (Executive Committee). The Position regularly provides reports to and meets with the Operations Committee, the membership of which is comprised of representatives of all agencies that are dispatched by the Emergency Communications Center.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Manages the Sumner County Emergency Communication Center in accordance with County and Executive Committee policies; in addition to federal, state, and local laws and regulations.
- Keeps the Sumner County Operations and Executive Committees (the Committees) apprised of financial conditions, major developments, and other center matters, as appropriate.
- Works closely with the county 911 Board and director in mapping and addressing equipment and information technology issues.
- Develops and revises policies and procedures to ensure that industry standards are maintained.
- Performs general oversight of the operations of the center.
- Works closely with multi-jurisdictional and multi-disciplinary consolidated dispatch board which has authority for operational protocols.
- Supervises staff and makes employment-related decisions and recommendations related to hiring, training, performance evaluations, and disciplinary/corrective actions, up to and including termination.

- Prepares and distributes financial information to the Committees, staff, and to other parties, as appropriate.
- Researches equipment, databases, networks, and technical support services on a regular basis in order to improve the level of services provided.
- Establishes and maintains effective work relationships with the Committees and other agencies to achieve mutual objectives.
- Develops long-range operational and strategic plans to ensure reliable emergency communications in Sumner County.
- Assists with preparing and recommending an annual operational and capital budget to the Executive Board.
- Administers the budget within approved parameters, making recommendations to the Executive Committee of changes or deviations from the approved budget as necessary.
- Monitors and evaluates the performance of vendors, contractors, and consultants.
- Coordinates and oversees major repairs, maintenance, and replacement of all center equipment as applicable.
- Attends Sumner County 911 Board and Emergency Services meetings, State of Tennessee 911 Board meetings, County EMS Committee and industry conferences, such as those sponsored by the National Emergency Number Association (NENA), Association of Public Communication Officials (APCO), and state associations.
- Responds to complaints and concerns from citizens and other agencies.
- This list is not intended to be all-inclusive. Position requires other duties as assigned to meet the ongoing needs of the organization.
